Looking for Relief from Abuse & No Stalking Order Support?

If you are experiencing domestic or sexual violence or stalking, WomenSafe may be able to help you. WomenSafe is a free and confidential service that works to serve people across the gender spectrum who experience sexual violence, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking. Through a 24-hour hotline, WomenSafe provides the following court advocacy services:

- Crisis Intervention & Emotional Support
- Assistance with Filing Protective Orders
- Accompaniment to Court Proceedings
- Assistance with Accessing Attorneys
- Safety Planning
- Referrals to Community Partners

On the day of your hearing, WomenSafe advocates will be available on Webex to answer questions and provide support starting at 8:10 AM. WomenSafe advocates can also provide services in-person at your hearing upon request.

For more details about court advocacy, please call 802-388-4205.

For protective orders involving children, WomenSafe offers a Supervised Visitation Program (SVP). SVP increases safety for children and parents during supervised visitations and monitored exchanges. Services are provided by a trained monitor in a safe, impartial, and child-friendly environment. You may request the Court orders supervised visitation for the opposing party when they consider parental contact during an RFA hearing.

For more details about supervised visitation, please call 802-388-6783.
